

ANIME at UMSL
postmodern Japan comes to St. Louis

October 3, 2009

ANIME at UMSL

postmodern Japan comes to St. Louis

Many Americans are impacted each day by Japan's most powerful export: contemporary culture. Whether we have glimpsed the Japan of the past or only experience a fragmented view of today's Japan as presented in its popular media, there are deeper themes and greater ties to rich historical and anthropological constants to be enjoyed and uncovered. Please join us for a FREE day-long symposium where experts in the field of Japanese popular culture will share new and exciting research.

Featuring a screening of the film "Paprika"

Distinguished guests include:

ROLAND KELTS - www.japanamericabook.com

Patrick Drazen - www.amazon.com --> Books --> Patrick Drazen

Jeni Prough - www.valpo.edu/christcollege/gaculty/prough.php

Christopher Born - www.doshiyo.com

Saturday 3 October 2009

9:30 AM - 6:00 PM

J. C. Penney Auditorium

University of Missouri-St. Louis

Free and open to the community

ANIME at UMSL has an evolving schedule. To view all the details and get the most up-to-date information, visit our website where you can printout a schedule, a campus map and register for this free event.

www.cfis-umsl.com --> click on "ANIME at UMSL"

Center for International Studies

366 Social Sciences & Business Building (MC 58)

One University Boulevard

St. Louis, Missouri 63121-4400

NONPROFIT ORG.
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
ST. LOUIS, MO
PERMIT NO. 3

ANIME at UMSL is sponsored by Japan America Society of St. Louis and Center for International Studies, University of Missouri-St. Louis